

Harvest Season at Story

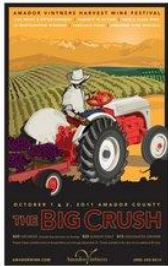

Greetings,

The winery is buzzing with activity as we gear up for the harvest. The cellar, tractors and all of the equipment is being prepped in anticipation of the upcoming crush. The vineyards are showing signs that the end of the growing season is near.

The warmer than average temperatures recently are causing the sugars to rise and luscious flavors to develop in the grapes. Thanks to the mild summer, the vines are heavy with plump, juicy clusters of fruit for 2011.

Big Crush

The annual Harvest Festival is October 1st & 2nd this year.

Don't miss out on all the fun!

Click here for the details and a promo code that will save you $5 per ticket.

If the ripening keeps to the current rate, we are likely to begin picking as soon as next week, and we very well may have 2011 Barrel Futures to sample at the Big Crush this year....fingers crossed...

Jan & Bruce

Wine & Food Pairing

Saturday, October 22nd

Monster Zins and Halloween Treats, no, this is not your average wine and food pairing experience.

Should you serve a red wine or a white wine with candy corn? Which pairs best with caramel apples? Laffy Taffy? Popcorn balls? Such a scary dilemma...

Frightening questions, yes, learn the answers when you join us as we pair your Favorite Halloween Treats with your Favorite Story Wines. View the details here.

The Social Story

Share your 'Story' stories and photos...

Our tasting room is open daily 11am to 5pm | Story Winery | 10525 Bell Road | Plymouth | CA | 95669